

Nga mihi nui Pukeokahu families and Community from Jan, Carol, Sara and Jenna.

ibike for Kids: Wahoo! Pukeokahu did it again! Bayden, Isla, Keeva, Victoria (and Pippa way in the background) earned a Hart sports' equipment prize. Thank you to the parents who took them to the Palmerston North Esplanade last Sunday. Even Lochie had a go!

Here, on the left, is the reason why class lessons were somewhat delayed one day this week. Yes, Luca visited with little sister, Lennon, (and Melissa.) Lots of mums were there to welcome them, have a cuddle of Lennon, a coffee and a chat. The class escaped outside to learn a game from Luca's new school. Everyone was so happy to see mischievous Luca again, especially because she stayed for the whole day!

Maths and Reading testing: I feel just as excited as each of the children do because... drum roll..... all have made wonderful progress. I think Mrs Gilbert's novel (pardon the pun) idea and her reward system has rejuvenated enthusiasm for reading books. Meanwhile in Maths...ask your children about fractions and good old Basic Facts. You may be surprised.

Hall Bar Tabs: A firm reminder from the Hall Committee to have these paid by the end of May, so "The Books" can go to the auditors. Thanks.
