Nga mihi nui Pukeokahu Families and Community from Jan, Carol and Jenna

School Camp:

No camp is a success without parent helpers. Grateful thanks to Courtney, Janey, Jenna, Jennie, Josh and Tom. With Carol's help the class has put up photos and stories on the website. Please take time to enjoy their recounts of our coastal camp.

Mathex:

Tiana and Isla were in mixed groups. Well done to Tiana's group called "Mixed Magic" that was placed 2nd. Having been to a competition, our Maths Masterminds will confidently participate next year.

Olympic Ambassador, Paora Winitana's, visit:

visit. The community is invited too! So, please join us at 9am on Friday 22 September and stay for a cuppa and chat.

The Movies:

After Paora's visit, Carol will take the class to see the "emoji#1" movie as a reward for them enthusiastically meeting her reading challenges.

Pukeokahu Hall news:

On Monday 18 Sept, there will be a pre-trek walk. Please let Bruce or Jock know if you are interested.

- construction of new toilet/storeroom/shower at hall going well,
- all wall framing is complete, roof on and nearly all cladding on
- initial plumbing work complete, now waiting for interior to be lined
- a five by 3.5 meter concrete pad is being laid at end of deck for disabled access, this will cause some changes to the kids' play area.
- waiting for price on installation of gas Calfont to heat water for shower and basins in new area.
- insulation to be installed to new area.
- on target for completion before end of October. Jock

Stop Press: Five of the class were well enough to go to Cross Country at Ohingaiti. All were placed in the top ten of their age group race—Bayden was 9th. Kawana was 2nd. Pippi was 2nd. Tiana was 4th and Victoria was 8th. Thanks to John and Carol for allowing us to practice in their paddocks.
