from Jan, Carol, Sara and Jenna.

Weetbix Tryathlon:

Five super-athletes: Pippa, Keeva, Bayden, Victoria and Isla powered their way through either a 50 (Pippa and Keeva) or a 100 metre swim, 4km cycle and a 1.5km run to receive a participant's medal. Phew! Luca was there to cheer them on. Many thanks to Courtney, Janey and Jennie who supported the athletes too. Keeva said, 🎵 "Everything is awesome." 🎵 Isla's comment about the Tryathlon was "exhausting because we had to get up in the dark". Victoria said she tried her best. Meanwhile Bayden was biting his lip as he saw how deep the water was. ("But he did it," said Mrs Casey.) Pippa thought the whole day was fun. Afterwards, we had a shortened visit to Te Manawa for a 1950's experience. (Comments, next week.)

Mayoral Visit:

Today, His Worship, Rangitikei Mayor, Andy Watson visited Pukeokahu School. He spoke of his job as Mayor, how and why decisions are made, the countries he has visited in his Mayoral capacity, his "spooky" business and answered patiently, and with good humour, some of the more personal questions. He delighted two children when they were allowed to wear the Mayoral chain and pretend they were making decisions for their community. e.g how many free lollies they were allowed in a day.
