Nga mihi nui Pukeokahu Families and Community from Jan, Carol, Jenna and Paparangi

Lovely to see the sun! As this newsletter is being written, the sun has (briefly) reappeared after days of rain, serious slips (thank you Andy for clearing one) and the snow on Tuesday.

Ski Trip: Our planned ski trip has been postponed until 24 and 25th September with lessons at 11am on the 24th. We will be staying overnight in the Rotorua Ski and Tramping Hut. Fingers crossed for "blue bird days" at Whakapapa.

Our Pukeokahu website is regularly updated with photos and children's comments. Please visit it and see all the amazing happenings.

A message from Jock: In preparation for the fundraising trek on 17 November, he is keen to have a Mt Aorangi reconnaissance sometime this month. Please contact either Bruce, Jennie or Jock if you are interested.

Cross Country: Tomorrow, Friday, is still on at this stage. A muddy course is guaranteed. I am sending home a set of old uniforms to wear.

Mātauranga Māori: just a reminder it is on Monday 10th finishing at 2pm. Please wear school uniform.

Literacy Quiz: Again, school uniform, please. Keeva, Victoria, Isla and Tiana will be part of mixed teams, while Hunter, Kawana and Pippa will join St Jo's classes.
